THE PROOTER & GAMBLE CO., OHTEL Secretary Geo C. Atkinson has returned from a visit to New Jersey, and if we take George's word for it, that state is a very sirable one to live in during the winter season. Now at this season of the year tomatoes are picked from the vine cooked, and aregg fald the day before is found to have had a chicken batched out next morning so intense is the heat. For this state ment we cannot vouch, and only refer to George as our authority.
